

STEP 5—Fees & Payment

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- ⇒ You must pay your fees within five (5) calendar days from the day of registration. If payment is not received you WILL BE DROPPED from your classes.

F.A.Q.s

Q: After I register for classes, when are the fees due?

A: Southwestern College payment policy: payment is due in five (5) calendar days from the day of registration.

Q: What will happen if I cannot pay for my classes within 5 days?

A: You will be dropped from your classes and there maybe a possibility of not being able to get the same schedule when you re-register for classes.

Q: What if I have qualified for Financial Aid (FAFSA), will that pay for my fees/tuition?

A: NO, you must pay for your classes after you register to secure your classes. Your grant will be disbursed to you according to the disbursement schedule disclosed to you by the financial aid office.

Q: I have qualified for Board of Governor's Fee Waiver (BOGW), why do I need to pay?

A: The approved BOGW exempts you for paying enrollment fees, but you are still responsible for mandatory and materials fees.

- Enrollment Fee $46.00
- Health Fee $17.00 per unit
- Course/Materials Fee $ Varies
- Student Center Fee $1.00 per unit $10 maximum per academic year.
