

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE POLICE ACADEMY

There is no more challenging, rewarding and honorable career than that of a peace officer. Becoming a peace officer is a highly competitive process. For every 100 people who apply, test and interview with public safety agencies, only one or two are hired. Many agencies do not hire people without prior training or law enforcement experience.

The Southwestern College Basic Police Academy is fully sanctioned by the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) and is designed for the working adult. All classes are presented by experienced professionals with special certification in adult learning theory. During the Academy you will be tested mentally and physically. You will grow in mind, body and spirit.

Upon graduation you will have earned college credit and a basic academy certification that qualifies you to compete for peace officer openings, anywhere in California, as a "lateral entry*" candidate.

When completing the Police Academy application, please refer to the check-off list on page four before submitting your application. Incomplete packets will not be accepted.

Before submitting your application packet make a copy of the application and supporting documents for your records. APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED IN PERSON TO THE POLICE ACADEMY OFFICE. Please contact the Police Academy Office for application deadlines and start dates at (619) 482-6462.

If you have any questions regarding the completion of the application or you would like additional information, please contact the Academy Office at (619) 482-6462 or email questions to evaldez@swccd.edu.

Because of the special nature of their work or structure some public safety agencies such as California Department of Correction and Rehabilitation, California Highway Patrol, and the Lost Angeles Police Department require attendance at their respective academy.
